Shipwreck Camp 2015, is an engaging summer day camp experience for 12 – 15 year old youth interested in science and exploration. Inspired by the expeditions of scientist and explorer, Dr. Robert Ballard, finder of the wreckage of the Titanic, campers will conduct a virtual search for Lake Erie shipwrecks and participate in hands-on science weekdays from 9:30a.m. – 3:30p.m. starting Monday, July 13, 2015 through Friday, July 24, 2015.

Campers will:

*read and discuss one of these five novels: The Cay, by Theodore Taylor; The Voyage of the Frog, by Gary Paulsen; Call It Courage, by Armstrong Sperry; Life of Pi, by Yann Martel; Shackleton’s Stowaway by Victoria McKernan (Please check for a copy of any one of these books with your local library.)
*using the tools of a scientist, sample a field research experience *embrace the history of the Great Lakes region with an historian from the Great Lakes Historical Society
*immerse themselves in an introduction to SCUBA *learn about and use navigational tools
*discover how weather contributes to shipwrecks in the Great Lakes form teams to build a remotely operated vehicle (ROV) using electronic and library resources, develop a plan and virtually find a wreck in Lake Erie
*share their discoveries and more

Campers will have their experiences at Case Western Reserve University and other sites throughout the camp experience. Each camper must be at least 12 years old, or, not older than 15 by the start of camp on July 13, 2015.

Campers should be in good health, able to get into and out of small or large boats and, at minimum, not be afraid of water, insects, boats, and the out of doors. Swimming skills are advantageous but not required. Students will be working in teams and some activities will be photographed and/or video taped. Camp activities may be changed or modified throughout the two week program.

P.S. Camp always starts on the CWRU campus at Guilford House, 11112 Bellflower Ave., Cleveland, Ohio 44106 ________________________________________________who is registered to participate in the following activity: SHIPWRECK CAMP, offered by the Center for Science and Mathematics Education at Case Western Reserve University. This day camp begins July 13, 2015 and ends on July 24, 2015.

I declare and recognize that it is in the above named minor’s best interest, as well as that of other participants, to follow the suggestions, guidelines, and/or rules of the camp and the camp coordinators and/or supervisors and that my participation in this activity is entirely voluntary or is at the direction or request of persons or entities not associated with Case.

I understand that participating in this activity may involve exposure to risks, including the loss of life, serious loss of limb, or loss of property. Also, I understand that the consumption of alcohol and/or illegal use of drugs is strictly prohibited and could result in the above named minor’s dismissal from further participation in the camp. If I have any questions about the nature of the camp, its risks or hazards, I have contacted the activity’s coordinator and/or supervisors and have discussed those questions with him/her to my satisfaction.

I understand that any Case personnel or agents also participating in this activity are not necessarily medically trained to care for any physical or medical problems that may occur during this camp experience. I further understand that Case does not carry medical or liability insurance for the above named minor while he/she is participating in this activity. By placing my signature below, I acknowledge to Case that I have adequate medical and hospitalization insurance for any injuries that the above named minor may incur as a result of participating in this activity.

NOW, THERERFORE, in consideration for the above named minor’s participation in this activity, agree to hold the supervisor(s), coordinator(s) of this activity, Case, its Board of Trustees, agents, officers, employees, and student or adult volunteers harmless for any and all direct, indirect, special or consequential damages, or costs, legal or otherwise, which the above named minor may incur as a result of his/her participation in this activity(ies), even if due to the negligence of Case or any person serving in the above identified capacities.

I have read the above terms of this Agreement/Release, and I understand and voluntarily agree to the terms and conditions. This Agreement/Release shall be binding upon the heirs, administrators, executors, and assigns of the undersigned. I further agree to indemnify Case Western Reserve University, its agents, officers, and employees against any action brought against Case by the above named participant, including, but not limited to an action brought by him or her upon reaching the age of majority. I warrant that I am authorized to execute this Agreement and Release on behalf of the above named minor. All participants must sign below. If participant is under 18 years of age, a parent signature is required.

Shipwreck Camp 2015
July 13 through July 24, 2015

To fully experience this Shipwreck Camp adventure, we hope and expect that campers will engage in all of the planned activities. Should a camper’s ability to participate in specific activities be limited due to health or religious reasons, please advise staff as soon as possible.

Program Consent: This camp experience is entirely voluntary. Campers will be asked to work in teams and are asked to accept responsibility for sharing in the work assigned to a team. It is hoped that working together will result in successfully accomplishing the task of virtually finding shipwrecks in Lake Erie. To ensure that each participant has a positive experience, campers are asked to agree to abide by a number of rules and codes of conduct.

Camper Honor Code:

The Shipwreck Camp honor code establishes standards and expectations for student behavior and reflects our commitment to have a safe and enjoyable learning experience.

In order to create a safe and successful Shipwreck Camping experience, I agree to:

- Always act with honesty and personal integrity
- Always treat all other campers, staff, and other camp participants and guests with respect, regardless of their age, gender, ability, religion, race, or sexual orientation
- Always treat all facilities and property with respect and care
- Always observe all camp rules and cooperate with staff

Camp staff agrees to honor this code, too!

General Behavior and Discipline Policies:

The goal of any summer camp is to have fun and learn in a healthy and safe environment. In order to ensure each camper’s safety and enjoyment as much as is reasonably possible, we ask campers to adhere to the following on campus and off campus while participating in camp activities:

- Refrain from using foul, abusive, or offensive language at all times
- Keep pagers and cell phones off throughout the scheduled camp day (9:30a.m. – 3:30p.m.)
- Refrain from carrying or using weapons of any kind, explosives (includes fireworks of any kind), illegal drugs or alcohol
- Refrain from treating campers, staff, and/or guests rudely
- Fighting, assault, violence, and/or physical intimidation (bullying) will result in dismissal from the camp.
- Tampering with fire equipment or theft of or causing damage to University property or the property of any of the sites visited will result in dismissal and financial penalty.
- To accomplish a variety of tasks during this camp, students will be using computers with access to the internet. Campers are to refrain from mining for or navigating on sites identified as inappropriate for youth.

Campers will be warned about any infraction. Parents will be called for the most serious infractions.

Camp Provisions:

Campers will be provided lunch each day. Please advise camp staff of any food allergies or restrictions.

The provider of the Introduction to SCUBA will make available necessary supplies and equipment to introduce campers to recreational diving and any necessary documents to allow campers to participate.

Campers are required to provide their own swimming suits, towels, swim shoes, sunscreen, and toiletries for events taking us to a pool or lake.

Campers are asked to dress appropriately for the weather. Should the weather be severe on days where outdoor events are scheduled, adjustments may be made in the schedule of events.

Campers will be photographed throughout the camp experience. Some of those photos will be placed on the university’s web site and some will be used for promotional purposes. If you do not want you/your child’s photo used for any reason, please check here ☐.
I have read and understand this document and as a participant agree to adhere to all rules and codes of conduct. I understand that I am responsible for my own behavior and will conduct myself in the most appropriate manner possible throughout the camp experience. Most importantly, we all agree to learn and have fun! Thank you for taking this adventure with us!
